Paid Family Leave benefits for California workers

There may be times in the life of a working person when they need to care for a loved one. Whether it's a working parent bonding with a newborn, or an employee caring for a seriously ill parent, child, spouse, or registered domestic partner, California's Paid Family Leave program was created for these times (Note: Registered domestic partners must meet requirements and register with the California Secretary of State to be eligible for benefits).

A program benefiting you and your family

California leads the nation as the first state to make it easier for employees to balance the demands of the workplace and family care needs at home. Paid Family Leave (PFL) benefits are based on the claimant's (care provider's) past quarterly earnings. For more information regarding maximum benefit amounts paid, view the link to the Disability Insurance (DI) & Paid Family Leave (PFL) Weekly Benefit Amounts in Dollar Increments form, DE 2589 at www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

Paid Family Leave for California employees

Paid Family Leave benefits do not provide job protection or return rights. Job protection may be provided if your employer is subject to the federal Family Medical Leave Act and the California Family Rights Act. Notify your employer of the reason for taking leave in a manner consistent with your company's leave policy.

To qualify for Paid Family Leave benefits, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be covered by State Disability Insurance (SDI) (or a voluntary plan in lieu of SDI) and have earned at least $300 in your base period from which deductions were withheld.
- Supply medical information supporting your claim that the care recipient has a serious health condition and requires your care.
- Submit your claim no earlier than 9 days, but no later than 49 days after the first day your family care leave began.
- Provide documentation to support a claim for bonding with a new biological, adopted, or foster child.
- Use up to two weeks of any earned but unused vacation leave or paid time off (PTO) if required by your employer prior to the initial receipt of benefits.
- Serve a 7-day unpaid waiting period before benefits begin for each different care recipient within the 12-month period.

You may not be eligible for benefits if:

- You are receiving Disability Insurance, Unemployment Insurance, or Workers' Compensation benefits.
- You are not working or looking for work at the time you begin your family care leave.
- You are not suffering a loss of wages.
- The need for care is not supported by the certificate of a treating physician or practitioner.
- You are in custody due to conviction of a crime.

You are entitled to:

- Know the reason and basis for decision affecting your benefits.
- Appeal decisions about your eligibility for benefits (Appeals must be sent to Paid Family Leave in writing.)

- A hearing of your appeal before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). Decisions may be further appealed to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and the courts.
- Privacy — Information about your claim will be kept confidential except for the purposes allowed by law.

Apply for benefits

Apply for Paid Family Leave benefits online at www.edd.ca.gov/disability. Employers and physicians/practitioners can submit claim information through SDI Online. You may also file a paper form. To request a claim form visit www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

If you are currently receiving SDI pregnancy-related benefits, it is not necessary to request a PFL claim form. PFL claim filing information will be sent through your SDI Online account or via mail when your pregnancy-related disability claim ends.
